b. Family - cost will be $30.00 per year.

The single membership gives the owner the right to one (1) vote in all club business. The family membership gives the owners the right to two (2) votes in all club business.

5. Payment of dues entitles each membership to a copy of the Savannah Parrot Head Club newsletter, membership identifications, and the right to participate in all activities and club business.

Article III - Meetings

A. Social Meetings: The club will have at least one social event a month. These may include but will not be limited to a monthly happy hour on the third Saturday of the month as long as that weekend is not a holiday weekend.

B. Business Meetings: The club will have a business meeting each month during the second week of the month. These meetings will be conducted by the Club President and in his /her absence by the Vice President. Any members in good standing may attend the business meetings and will conduct themselves in a professional manner. All club decisions at the business meeting will be by a simple majority with the exception of a change to the bylaws, which will require a 2/3 majority. All bylaw changes will require a first, second, and final reading before they can be voted on. Minutes will be taken at all meetings and reported at the following meeting. Prospective members may attend but will not be allowed to vote.

C. Executive Board Meeting: The Board will meet on an as needed basis. In the event that a decision needs to be made before the next scheduled business meeting, all officers must be consulted and a majority of the officers will have to vote in the affirmative for the item to pass.

Article IV - Officers, Executive Board, and Elections

A. Officers/Elections: The club will elect the following officers for a term of one year:

1. President
2. Vice President
3. Treasurer
4. Secretary
5. Activities Director

In order to be eligible to hold an office in the Savannah Parrot Head Club, a member must have ten (10) points (see Article VI - C). Points must have been earned by participating in at least one charitable event and by attending at least one business meeting or happy hour.

Nominations will be opened at the August business meeting. Nominations will be closed after the September business meeting with ballots being sent out within 10 days to all participating* member(s).

*In order to be a participating member, you must have earned a minimum of five (5) points. Additionally, a participating member must have been a member for a minimum of three (3) months.

Should a tie occur, the tiebreaker would be determined based upon points earned!

Each of the officers may have one or more Chairman to help them carryout the responsibilities of their position. The Executive Committee will appoint these positions for the same period as the Officer's term.

In the event that an officer cannot complete their term in office, the Executive Board will appoint an interim replacement until an election can be held.

Voting will be at the October Business Meeting. Proxy votes will be accepted. However, they must be submitted to the Executive Board before the October Business Meeting.

B. Executive Board: The Executive Board will consist of the President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Activities Director. The Executive Board will be responsible for ensuring that all club activities are conducted in accordance with the guidelines and bylaws of the Parrot Heads in Paradise Inc. and the Savannah Parrot Head Club. The Board will be empowered to make decisions between business meetings when the decision cannot wait until the next business meeting. All decisions will be by consensus with each member having one vote. The President may serve as a tiebreaker if a consensus cannot be reached. Any and all Board decisions will be reported at the next business meeting. The Board will act on recommendations from the general membership and forward items to the general member.

Article VI - Miscellaneous

A. Adoption of Bylaws: These bylaws have been approved by a majority of the members in good standing. Future modifications/amendments to the bylaws will be accomplished by way of a vote at the regular business meeting. They will require a first, second, and final reading before they can be voted on. To pass, the bylaw will require a 2/3 majority.

B. Infractions of Bylaws:

1. Any current member may submit in writing (signed, dated, and clearly written), the occurrence of a bylaw infraction (PHIP or Savannah Parrot Head Club) or an illegal activity of the Executive Board. It is the responsibility of the Executive Board to review the alleged infraction and by a simple majority either accepts or reject. If it is accepted, the Board will proceed to number 2 below.

2. The Executive Board will inform the member by letter of the alleged infractions against them. The member will be given thirty (30) days to provide a written response to the Board. If the member chooses not to respond within thirty (30) days, the Executive Board will move forward on a decision without the member's input.

3. At the next Executive Board meeting after the 30-day deadline, the Board will evaluate the alleged infraction and make one of the following decisions:

a. No Action - the Board has considered the alleged infraction and the Board will take no further action.

b. Action - The alleged infraction has been considered by the Board and action is being taken as determined by a majority decision of the Executive Board. The specific action is entirely left to the discretion of the Executive Board and is based solely upon the written infraction.

4. If action is taken against a member, the member will be informed in writing within thirty (30) days of the Executive Board's decision. The member who submitted the original statement of alleged infraction(s) shall be provided with a copy of the Board's decision.

5. The Executive Board's decisions are considered final unless an appeal is made to hear the case before the entire membership with all pertinent facts being communicated. A simple majority decision will be required to uphold the Board's decision.

6. At the next scheduled meeting, the membership shall be informed of the decision, and the information will be properly recorded in the minutes.

C. Concert Point System: In the event that the number of members that want concert tickets exceeds those made available to the club, a point system will be used to determine who receives tickets. The point year will run from the first event after the local Jimmy Buffett concert until the time that money is due for the current year's concert. No more than two (2) tickets per member will be available to the highest point earners. The Executive Board, based on ticket availability, may adjust this figure. Ties will be broken by lottery. The Executive Board may designate one or two tickets for charity fundraisers. All qualified members will be given a deadline for the purchase of tickets. If that deadline passes, the opportunity to purchase will go to the person with the next highest point total.

Points will be awarded as follows:

Officers - 5 points

Committee Chairs - 4 points

Organization of a charity event - 3 points

Active service on any committee - 2 points

Participation in any charity/volunteer event - 2 points
